

Seminar:

Challenges of urban development in Cyprus:

- (a) Architectural competitions for public projects
- (b) Urban densities and high rise buildings

PLACE: POAK Building, Othellou 27, Fanagusta Gate, Nicosia

TIME: Saturday, January 27th, 09:30am.

- 10:00-10:15 Introductory Lecture: Nicosia, background and current challenges
(Byron Ioannou, Frederick University)
- 10:15-10:30 The general framework for the architectural competitions in Cyprus
(Gregoris Kalnis, Frederick University)
- 10:30-10:45 Case study: University of Cyprus campus
(Christina Zachariadou Sierepekli, Coordinator of Planning Office, University of Cyprus)
- 10:45-11:20 Competition Projects
(Margarita Danou, practicing architect)
- COFEE BREAK
- 11:50-12:05 High rise buildings in Cyprus – challenges and gaps
(Lora Nicolaou, Frederick University)
- 12:05-12:25 Introduction to Limassol – the evolution of its urban fabric, city clusters and current urban challenges
(Alexandros Christophinis, practicing architect)
- 12:25-13:00 Discussion
(Moderator: Antoine Zammit, University of Malta)